

FORTIS FEMINA MEMBER GUIDELINES

1. Members agree to make one payment of $350 for an annual membership. The payment of membership fees is non-refundable.
2. Members are required to attend/participate in at least four workshops/presentations per year.
3. Members are required to facilitate two one-hour workshops on their area of expertise. One must be in person and one needs to be online. Members would be responsible for coordinating with Fortis Femina what their subject would be and the date that it would be hosted. Fortis Femina retains the rights and privileges of the workshops for its use, reproduction and distribution.
4. Membership is considered a privilege and may be revoked at any time if violation of these guidelines occurs.
5. Membership is intended as a mutual benefit among the members and for the larger community. It is not intended solely to be a platform for self-enrichment or personal career and business advancement.
6. Members will promote a spirit of cooperation, support and encouragement. We are here to help one another to achieve our most important, unique, life-enhancing goals.
7. Members agree to invest in Fortis Femina T-shirts to be worn in all events, unless indicated otherwise.
8. Members are not allowed to engage in judgment, argumentative, disparaging, trolling, shaming, negative comments or attitudes towards anyone. Hazing, harassing or slandering other members in person or digitally will result in termination of membership. We want this to be a safe, positive community that supports and elevates all members.
9. Fortis Femina reserves the right to REMOVE any post or person that violates the regulations previously cited in all social media or written channels.
